Artwork/Project Title
FitTrack Landing Page

Year Accomplished
2024

Role/Position
Front-End Developer

Publication Link
https://github.com/Kuurianse/FitTrack

Artwork/Project Description

The FitTrack project is a landing page for a gym or fitness center. It provides information about the gym's classes, memberships, and facilities. Offer other features such as online booking for classes or memberships.

The project is built using React, a popular JavaScript library for building user interfaces. It uses Tailwind CSS for styling and TypeScript for type safety.